Company Profile

Description	: KOBUMI is a social eco-enterprise and export trading company based in Indonesia, connecting global markets with sustainably sourced commodities from Eastern Indonesia. We work in close partnership with cooperatives, Indigenous communities, smallholder farmers, and local fishermen across Papua, Maluku, and Sulawesi to build transparent, traceable, and community-based supply chains for coconut, spices, seafood, and other natural products. Our model integrates commercial reliability with measurable social and environmental impact — strengthening local livelihoods, improving market access, and promoting responsible resource management. Through long-term partnerships, quality assurance, and direct sourcing, we ensure consistent supply while creating shared value across the supply chain. At KOBUMI, trade is not only about moving commodities — it is about advancing sustainable economic ecosystems rooted in community empowerment. If you are looking for a trusted sourcing partner from Indonesia, we welcome the opportunity to collaborate.
