Company Profile

Description	: PT Kebaikan Alam Indonesia is an Indonesian manufacturer of premium botanical beverage products, operating under the brand ARAMU. The company specializes in the development and production of botanical-based beverage systems made from authentic Indonesian spices such as red ginger, turmeric, and curcuma, sourced from the fertile volcanic regions of Sumatera. Aramu combines traditional Indonesian botanical knowledge with modern food technology to create clean-label, functional beverage solutions designed for both consumer and professional markets. The company's core offering includes Botanical Brew Base, a concentrated botanical beverage system developed for horeca, beverage businesses, and food manufacturers, enabling fast, consistent, and scalable beverage production without complex preparation processes. In addition to its professional product line, Aramu also offers retail-ready botanical products including ready-to-drink beverages, botanical paste concentrates, and herbal tea (tisane). All products are manufactured under certified food safety standards, including HACCP, GMP, BPOM registration, and Halal certification, ensuring quality, safety, and global market readiness. PT Kebaikan Alam Indonesia also provides private label and custom product development services for international partners, supporting brands, distributors, and beverage companies in creating tailored botanical beverage solutions. With a strong commitment to quality, authenticity, and innovation, Aramu aims to bring Indonesian botanical heritage to the global market through scalable and modern beverage solutions.
