Company Profile

Description	: Wegre2n Indonesia or CV Wegre2n Golden Indonesia is an exporter that supplies renewable energy products from Indonesia. As we know, Indonesia has diverse biomass natural resources as energy's raw material. It can potentially improve people's welfare through the activity of processing raw material into renewable energy products with global standard. Wegre2n comes from we, green, and golden. We represent partners who collaborate with us. Green describes Indonesia's natural resources. Golden is interpreted as a goal to be achieved, that is gold or glory. So, Wegre2n Indonesia means that we are involved together in creating renewable energy products as an alternative energy with global standards based on the principle of sustainability.
